Note: Important. Candidates selected for one of the Service Academies receive an outstanding and costly education at the expense of the Federal Government. Graduates are required to serve a minimum of five (5) years on active duty after graduation. In making nominations, we look to select individuals who are sincerely motivated to become professional officers in the Armed Forces. For this reason, every applicant is asked to sign the statement below:

CERTIFICATE

I, _____, a candidate for nomination to one of the United States Service Academies, do hereby certify that my application is motivated primarily by a desire to serve my country as a professional officer. It is my intention, if I receive an appointment, to graduate from the Academy. If for any reason I no longer am interested in an appointment or am unable to accept an appointment I will notify the office immediately. I make this pledge in good conscience. I give my permission for my name to be used in a press release after receiving a nomination or an appointment.
