

Mr. Speaker, I thank the chairman for yielding me time.

Daniel Webster said, Hold on, my friends, to the Constitution and to the Republic for which it stands, for miracles do not cluster. And what has happened once in 6,000 years may never happen again. So hold on to the Constitution, for if it should fall, there will be anarchy throughout the world.

Mr. Speaker, Daniel Webster is no longer with us, but if we could just realize that we will soon no longer be here either and if we do not uphold and defend the Constitution and the foundation of this republic and society itself, which is marriage and the family, generations will lose this beacon of freedom that we have.
